

Speakers

Automation & Intelligence Forum
May 26, 2021

Arnoud Heeres,
European Commission

Arnoud Heeres, European Commission

Arnoud Heeres has worked as an EC Official since 2001, and as the DG HOME Coordinator Internal Security Fund Police since 2015. His main policy areas are EU Police Cooperation, LEA Networks, Cybercrime, Forensics, THB. Arnoud studied history and completed a Post-doc in Information Technology.

Nicky Haneveer,
ZiuZ

Nicky Haneveer, ZiuZ

Nicky Haneveer Msc., is an experienced Projectmanager at ZiuZ with a background in Business Administration. Besides the AviaTor project she has experience with delivering the best service to law enforcement and INHOPE by managing several projects.

Annemarie Brockmüller,
Web IQ

Annemarie Brockmüller, Web IQ

Annemarie Brockmüller works at Web-IQ where she liaises with organisations combating internet-facilitated crimes and works with clients on making the dark web data suitable for investigations, research and prevention. For AviaTor she took part in over 16 interviews with participating LEA about how NCMEC reports are currently processed. She holds a degree in AI from the University of Amsterdam.

Jos Flury,
ZiuZ

Jos Flury, ZiuZ

Jos Flury joined ZiuZ in 2013 as Executive Vice President responsible for the Forensic Business Unit. Since then, he has strengthened ZiuZ' international presence and promoted collaboration with all stakeholders fighting child exploitation and abuse. Jos represents ZiuZ at the INTERPOL and Europol conferences and at the VGT and WeProtect meetings. He heads the development of both the ICCAM and ReportBox system for INHOPE since 2014 and the EC funded AviaTor project. Jos is the primary contact for Law Enforcement within ZiuZ.

Dushica Naumovska,
INHOPE

Dushica Naumovska, INHOPE

Dushica Naumovska is INHOPE's Programme Manager and acts as the first contact point to the European Commission, INTERPOL and the End Violence Against Children Fund. Dushica has more than 12 years' experience in the EU, Western Balkans and East Africa. With extensive experience in project & partnership management and fundraising at non-profit organisations, she now acts as a Supervisory Board Member on the largest peace organisation in the Netherlands, PAX.

Speakers

Automation & Intelligence Forum
May 26, 2021

Yves Goethals,
Belgian Federal Police

Yves Goethals, Belgian Federal Police

Yves Goethals is Team Leader of the Child Abuse Unit in the Directorate Serious and Organised Crime of the Belgian Federal Judicial Police. Since 2018, he has also been the driver of the EMPACT-cybercrime CSE/CSA project. Yves represents the Belgian police on the AviaTor project. He has worked for the Police for nearly thirty years, is a father of two, and grandfather of three.

Mathijs Homminga,
Web-IQ

Mathijs Homminga, Web-IQ

Mathijs Homminga is co-founder and CTO of Web-IQ. He worked as a researcher in the field of autonomous systems and drives the innovation of the web intelligence products for law enforcement at Web-IQ. Mathijs holds a master's degree in AI.

Frank van der Molen,
Dutch National Police

Frank van der Molen, Dutch Child Exploitation Investigations Team

Frank van der Molen, a digital specialist at the Dutch Child Exploitation Investigations Team, specialized in technical challenging dark web operations. His other focus areas include innovative approaches to handle large amounts of available data.

Ben van Mierlo,
Dutch National Police

Ben van Mierlo, National Police of the Netherlands

Ben van Mierlo is the chief superintendent for the Netherlands Police. He is the national coordinator in the fight against child abuse images and travelling child sex offenders, working in this area since 2013 and in a variety of leadership roles in the police since 1980. Ben holds a master's degree in strategic leadership, a graduate diploma in police leadership and a BAa in ethics.